CAF -Development Bank of Latin America-
Daiwa Securities Group Inc.

The Issuance of CAF Water Bonds

～Supporting various water-related projects in Latin America and the Caribbean～

CAF –Development Bank of Latin America- and Daiwa Securities Group jointly announce the issuance and sales of the Water Bonds by CAF (the “Water Bonds”). The Water Bonds will be CAF’s first ever SRI-bond in any market, and Daiwa Securities is to offer the Bonds to individual and SMEs investors in Japan.

CAF is a Supranational Development Bank owned by 19 countries and has spent 45 years financing sustainable development and regional integration in Latin America. CAF is the leading development bank in financing infrastructure and energy projects in this region.

CAF supports countries to achieve universal access to adequate drinking water and sanitation services, following the principles of integrated water resources management. In the last five years, demand for CAF loans to the water sector grew in both financing and technical assistance. CAF disbursed cumulative amounts of $4.3 billion over 2010-2014, which represent 9% of CAF’s total approvals.

CAF shall use its best efforts to apply proceeds raised through the Water Bonds for various water-related projects such as water supply, sanitation, waste water treatment and irrigation in Latin America and the Caribbean.

CAF’s Water Bonds will provide Japanese investors an opportunity to support CAF’s vision and strategy of achieving universal access to adequate drinking water and sanitation services for people in Latin America and the Caribbean among other water related challenges through their investments.

Daiwa Securities Group actively pursues its commitment to social responsibility by undertaking Impact Investment initiatives, and the Water Bonds issued by CAF is one of such initiatives of Daiwa.
